

Percussion Marketing Council
Presents

Free Admission!

ROOTS of RHYTHM

World Drumming Curriculum and Core Academic Subjects to Meet Classroom Standards

Two Teacher Workshops On World Drumming

Featuring Roots of Rhythm author, master trainer, educator, and ethnomusicologist

Dr. Craig Woodson

- Instruction in the use of the free online interdisciplinary Roots of Rhythm curriculum
- Hands-on instruction in music making and instrument building, five instruments per workshop
- Two workshops: take Workshop I on Saturday or Workshop II on Sunday, or take both
- Multidisciplinary lessons in music, science, math, geography, social studies and art
- Support for K-12 content standards in core academic subjects
- Lessons for use by general classroom teachers and music specialists
- Instruments and rhythms from Africa, Asia, Europe, the Middle East and the Americas

Roots of Rhythm is sponsored by:
The Percussion Marketing Council (PMC) &
NAMM, the International Music Products Association

Open to all music and non-music teachers. MOVED TO JULY 9-10!

Location: Music Institute of Chicago, Lake Forest Campus
40 E. Old Mill Road, Lake Forest, IL 60045 (847) 905-1500 Ext. 194

- Workshop I: July 9, 2010 Friday 9:00AM-4:00PM
- Workshop II: July 10, 2010 Saturday 9:00AM-4:00PM

Information and registration is at www.rootsofrhythm.net/upcomingworkshops.html

Contact Dr. Craig Woodson if needed: cell 440-725-8767 or woodsons@roadrunner.com

Supply fee: $25.00 for one workshop or $45.00 for both workshops